

Adverbs Modifying Other Adverbs Practice Exercise 1

Directions: Find the adverb that modifies another adverb in the sentence. Draw an arrow from the modifying adverb to the adverb that is being modified, and then write the modifying adverb in the blank.

1. _____ She sang more beautifully tonight than during dress rehearsal.
2. _____ Your family will most certainly arrive on time.
3. _____ The teachers very awkwardly danced to the latest hit song.
4. _____ My friend visits less regularly than I'd like.
5. _____ The time in class passed too slowly.
6. _____ Less excitedly, Nicky submitted her answer.
7. _____ On the other hand, their guests arrived slightly earlier.
8. _____ They finished the test quite quickly.
9. _____ She called him more frequently over the summer.
10. _____ He spoke somewhat unexpectedly in class today.

Answer Key: Adverbs Modifying Other Adverbs Practice Exercise 1

1. more > beautifully
2. most > certainly
3. very > awkwardly
4. less > regularly
5. too > slowly
6. Less > excitedly
7. slightly > earlier
8. quite > quickly
9. more > frequently
10. somewhat > unexpectedly