

Active Voice and Passive Voice

Lyrics by GrammarFlip

The active voice is clear and strong.
The subject acts; it moves things along.
The passive voice just flips it around.
The subject is acted on—it's profound!

The cat chased the mouse across the street.
The cat does the acting—it's pretty sweet.
When the subject acts, the verb's alive.
The active voice is where action thrives!

The active voice is clear and strong.
The subject acts; it moves things along.
The passive voice just flips it around.
The subject is acted on—it's profound!

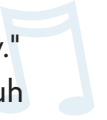

The cat chased the mouse across the street.
The cat does the acting—it's pretty sweet.
When the subject acts, the verb's alive.
The active voice is where action thrives!

The active voice is clear and strong.
The subject acts; it moves things along.
The passive voice just flips it around.
The subject is acted on—it's profound!

The book was read by the girl at night.
The subject's passive, not in the spotlight.
Passive voice puts action first.
The actor comes next—it's all reversed!

The active voice is clear and strong.
The subject acts; it moves things along.
The passive voice just flips it around.
The subject is acted on—it's profound!

Active voice says, "The chef cooked the stew."
Passive voice says, "The stew was cooked—uh huh - it's true."
Both can work, now you're on a roll;
Choose the voice to fit your goal!

The active voice is clear and strong.
The subject acts; it moves things along.
The passive voice just flips it around.
The subject is acted on—it's profound!

