

Simple Subjects

Lyrics by GrammarFlip

A simple subject, just one word.
A thing, a place, or a person heard.
A complete subject says a bit more
With adjectives, details, maybe four!

When I say "dog," that's a simple one;
Just the noun, no extra fun,
But "The big brown dog" who barks all night;
That's a complete subject - all right!

A simple subject, just one word.
A thing, a place, or a person heard.
A complete subject says a bit more
With adjectives, details, maybe four!

A "city" sits as a simple place,
But "A bright city with a busy pace,"
Describes a lot with words galore,
And that's a complete subject, oh yeah - for sure!

A simple subject, just one word.
A thing, a place, or a person heard.
A complete subject says a bit more
With adjectives, details, maybe four!

A simple subject, just one word.
A thing, a place, or a person heard.
A complete subject says a bit more
With adjectives, details, maybe four!

"Teacher" works as a simple one too,
But "The happy teacher with students like you,"
Adds in a few more - adds a clue;
That's a complete subject through and through!

A simple subject, just one word.
A thing, a place, or a person heard.
A complete subject says a bit more
With adjectives, details, maybe four!

"Teacher" works as a simple one too,
But "The happy teacher with students like you,"
Adds in a few more - adds a clue;
That's a complete subject through and through!

A simple subject, just one word.
A thing, a place, or a person heard.
A complete subject says a bit more
With adjectives, details, maybe four!

